ANYHOW, HE SAVED THE EDSEL

Small Lots Face County Scrutiny

Planners Question Timing Of Many Subdivisions

Apparently, according to the Marin County planning staff, there was considerable activity in the San Geronimo Valley in March to form minor subdivisions, before new zoning requiring larger lots went into effect.

The county planning commission today saw several examples of such lot splits, and Planning Director B. D. Dobbs said some of the subdivisions may be illegal. The commission asked for further investigation.

ZONED SINGLE

In most cases, the land, until March 25, was zoned for single family dwelling or interim zoning allowing 7,500-square-foot lots. The new zoning requires lots of at least 10,000 square feet, and often larger, depending on the terrain.

However, any lot which existed under the old zoning remains legal under the new. The question, in many cases, depended on the timing of the lot splits. Senior Planner Ned Parsons said most of the changes are still being processed by the county recorder and assessor.

Junior planner Edward Low desribed one case where adjustments are being asked by Harlan Floyd and Associates for two houses on small lots on what had once been part of a fairly large parcel but which now contains seven lots. The land is on the north side of Salix Avenue, Woodside.

REAR FRONTAGE

"There is a question as to whether or not there has been a violation of the subdivision ordinancee," he said. He added that the parcels front on a street, but have access off a narrow frontage to the rear.

Commissioner William F. Upton noted that the road and lots are substandard, and said changes are needed in the county's ordinance controlling such divisions.

He made the point again on the adjustment request of Floyd Nolan for a variance on a narrow lot at 27 Madrone Avenue, Woodacre, and again on a similar request by Jess Jenssen for a lot at 34 Sylvestris Drive, San Geronimo. In each case the requests were continued to May 18 for a check on the property of the subdivisions.

Since ownership in most cases has not changed, Dobbs said, combination of the properties is usually possible.

"If two building sites are claimed as a substantial property right," the staff report noted in the Floyd application, "then this would further raise the suspicion of a subdivision violation or conspiracy to circumvent the subdivision ordinance."

PUSH BUTTON CONFUSION LEADS TO BAY

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A woman, who police reported became confused by the push button transmission in her new car, drove into San Francisco Bay yesterday.

A Roman Catholic priest and an off-duty fire captain pulled the driver, Mrs. Carmen Navarro, 59, and her passenger, Leroy McCovey, 58, to safety.

The car lurched over a 10-foot seawall at the Marina Green and became submerged to the window line.

The Rev. Kenneth Hunt of Oakland saw the accident from where he was walking. San Francisco Fire Capt. William Graham saw it from his car. They jumped in and carried McCovey to safety and helped take Mrs. Navarro out of the water.

'Keep Lodge In Asia,' Oregon Voters Feel

Few Favor His Return To Stump

By Advance News Service

PORTLAND — Oregon voters, by a 12 to 5 preference, believe ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge should remain at his post in Saigon rather than return to campaign in their state's Republican presidential primary.

At the same time, a sizable share of Oregonians tend to believe the United States should stepup the war effort against the Communists in Vietnam, where Lodge is the official envoy of a Democratic administration that has been reluctant to expand the war.

These were the findings in the latest statewide polls conducted for the Portland Oregonian by a private polling organization, Clark, Bardsley & Haslacher.

However, the war issue proved to be puzzling to Oregonians and fewer offered opinions on it than on the question of whether Lodge should return before the May 15 primary.

On that issue, his supporters were strong in the belief that he should not. This attitude was also shared, although to a lesser degree, by supporters of his opponents—Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York, and former vice president Richard M. Nixon—as well as by Democrats, who will not vote in the GOP primary.

To the question of whether Lodge should come to Oregon and campaign or stay in South Vietnam, the poll found these views:

Stay in South Vietnam	60%
Campaign in Oregon	25%
Undecided	15%

"It's his job to stay over there," was a frequent comment from those who thought he should remain.

(In previous polls conducted by the same polling service, Lodge was leading the field of Republican candidates in Oregon although he, like Nixon, has never declared himself as a contender.)

In contrast, there were such

Lowered Tariffs Sought In Talks

GENEVA (AP)—President Johnson pledged United States help to bring the Kennedy round of tariff negotiations "to a happy and fruitful conclusion."

Former Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, the President's chief trade negotiator, delivered Johnson's message to the formal opening session today of the Kennedy round.

The session marked the beginning of a marathon tariff cutting effort by the 75 members of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade expected to continue for at least two years.

BEST WISHES

"Upon the opening of this meeting of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, an important and effective instrument for the expansion of world trade, I should like to send you the best wishes for success from the people of the United States," Johnson said.

"Your meetings, universally known as the Kennedy round, exemplify the hope and commitment of our late president to bring together the nations of the world in peaceful pursuits. I believe, as he did, in the necessity of success in your work.

ACT TOGETHER

"We in the United States look upon these negotiations as an important opening to a better world. If we act together with dedication of purpose, all can gain and none need lose. Not only the major commercial nations, but all the countries of this shrinking world—poor and rich alike—have the right to expect success from our endeavors.

"For the United States, I can assure you that we shall spare no effort in seeking to help bring this meeting, and the meetings which will follow, to a happy and fruitful conclusion."

Hard bargaining on tariff cuts begin before Sept. 10, authoritative sources said. That is the date when 75 of the nations have tentatively agreed to submit their lists of exceptions—goods and products which they refuse to submit to blanket tariff cuts.

Herter's U.S. delegation has congressional authorization to seek across-the-board tariff cuts of 50 per cent.

The United States probably will consider itself fortunate to win tariff cuts of 30 to 40 per cent, informants said.

In a brief opening speech, Herter complained that the preliminary talks have made little progress in dealing with farm products, considered essential to the negotiations by Washington. Nor, he said, has anyone come to grips with other barriers to international trade.

"It is now our joint responsibility," he said, "to move ahead more rapidly and successfully than in the past to fill the remaining gaps. The longer the rules are left open, the longer we procrastinate in setting the formulas by which these negotiations will proceed, the more we risk the success of the entire trade negotiations."

Transit Bill Amendments To Governor

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The Assembly today concurred in Senate amendments to the Marin Rapid Transit District bill, sending it to Gov. Edmund G. Brown for his signature.

The amendments were added by the Senate to meet objections by officials of cities in Marin, who protested that as originally drawn, the cities would have no representation on the district's governing board and the district could condemn city land for transit rights of way without city consent. The amendments were designed to correct these deficiencies.

The bill, by Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) is expected to be signed by Governor Brown since it provides that any transit district formed in Marin County could later be merged with the Bay Area Rapid Transit District if it enters the county. Brown last year refused to sign a similar bill for lack of this provision.

Under the bill, vote of the people of Marin would be necessary to set up the district and provide financing for it.

Weekend's Weather All Mixed Up

Intermittent sunshine, cold winds and light rain prevailed during the first weekend of May in Marin.

An otherwise weak storm dropped hail in San Anselmo and at Bootjack Camp in Tamalpais State Park for a brief period yesterday, but barely raised the total rainfall for the year.

Total rainfall to date in San Rafael is 19.71 inches, far below last year's total of 46.56 inches for the same period.

Largest amount of rain fell in the Lagunitas and Alpine Lake areas where .41 of an inch was reported. Other rainfall totals were Kent Lake, .39, Tamalpais Valley and Bon Tempe and Phoenix Lakes, .33, Sausalito, .29, Mill Valley, .26, Chevy Chase area in Larkspur and Woodacre, .24, Point Reyes Station, .22, Belvedere, .21, Larkspur, .20, San Anselmo, .18, and San Rafael, .13.

The weatherman has forecast sunny skies for tomorrow.

Skunk Killed; Had Sympton Of Rabies

A tipsy skunk, possibly suffering from rabies, was shot by sheriff deputies Saturday afternoon in a field adjacent to the home of attorney Richard V. Godino at 449 Tennessee Valley Road, Tamalpais Valley.

Godino spotted the skunk on his front porch several days ago as the animal was eating out of a dish of food for his dogs.

Saturday he saw the same skunk wandering in the field unable to keep its balance, a symptom of rabies-infected animals.

He called the sheriff's department and the animal was killed and turned over to the county health department for examination.

Decision on whether the skunk's head will be tested for rabies was expected to be made this afternoon. The animal did not bite any of the children in the area but may have come in contact with Godino's dogs—which have had rabies vaccinations.

Hoffa Mistrial Plea Rejected

CHICAGO (UPI) — Federal Judge Richard B. Austin today rejected for the third time attempts to have a mistrial declared in the $20 million fraud trial of teamster leader James Hoffa.

Defense attorney Maurice J. Walsh demanded the mistrial because of remarks made by Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy to a group of University of Law school students last weekend.

Walsh pointed to remarks by Kenneday printed in Chicago newspapers. The attorney general was quoted as telling the students that he became familiar with corruption in the teamsters union when he was attorney for the Senate Rackets Committee, and he decided to do something about it.

Hearings in Marin Superior Court in the abortion cases against Dorothy Frances Leat of Mill Valley and Anthony D. Rader, 27, of San Rafael were continued today until 9:30 a.m. May 18 for pleas.

Rader, a bartender in Tiburon, is charged with performing an abortion at his apartment at 32 Front Street on a San Anselmo woman March 12. Mrs. Leet, a cocktail waitress in San Rafael, is jointly accused with Theodore Stephen (Ted) Caruso, 46, El Sobrante, of conspiracy to commit an April 5 abortion of another San Anselmo woman.

Caruso, scheduled for plea at 9:30 a.m. next Monday in the court, is further charged with performing the April 5 abortion.

Continuance in the cases of Mrs. Leet and Radar was a request of their attorney, Harold R. Hayes.

Other major candidates for the Democratic nomination in the June 2 primary are state controller Alan Cranston and Pierre Salinger, former white house secretary.

McLain is head of the Senior Citizens League of California.

Accused Slayer Due Access To Records

Defense counsel for John Lee King, 28-year-old co-defendent in the Sausalito murder of Donald G. Corbett Jr., won Marin Superior Court permission today for access to a large quantity of information held by the district attorney's office.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr., ruled the district attorney must make available to King's lawyer, Public Defender Peter Allen Smith, copies of all statements made by King prior to his grand jury proceedings, copies of any photographs shown King by officers in taking a statement prior to his obtaining counsel, copies of any criminal records of either King or his co-defendent, Robert Lee Jones, 25, copies of the coroner's report or reports following the autopsy of Corbett, and results of a lie detector test given King.

Judge Sims took under advisement until 11 a.m. next Monday, however, request by Smith for names and addresses of all intended prosecution witnesses.

Plea of King was not entered in today's proceedings.

Jones, represented by Thomas P. Boyd, San Rafael court-appointed attorney, was given a week's continuance by Judge Sims pending filing by Boyd of a request to District Court of Appeals in San Francisco for a writ restraining Superior Court from trying his client and King jointly.

Jones has not yet entered a plea, either.

An earlier motion today by Smith that the indictment of murder, kidnaping and armed robbery against King be dismissed because of in sufficient evidence was denied.

King and Jones are accused in the March 27 icepick and bludgeoning slaying of Corbett, 30, in his Sausalito apartment.

Bagley Is Seeking To Alter Election Law

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael), today introduced a bill (A.B. 199) providing that notice of any district election must appear in a newspaper published in the district where the election is held, unless no such newspaper exists.

The bill resulted from an editorial in the Independent-Journal pointing out that notices for all district elections in Marin County last month had been placed by the county clerk with a newspaper in Novato, which does not circulate in some of the districts involved.

GI's Declare Vietnamese Front 'Safer'

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Four young Americans wounded by a Communist grenade attack in downtown Saigon are anxious to return to the battle zone.

"It's safer there than here in Saigon," said Lt. Hector Dittamo, 22, of West Paterson, N. J., with a wry smile.

U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge had driven along the Saigon Street Saturday night just 10 minutes before a Viet Cong terrorist on a bicycle lobbed the handmade grenade into a group of American servicemen.

Pfc. Joseph G. Gustafson, 25, of Bayfield, Wis., said he saw the grenade rolling at them.

"I hollered 'Watch it' and started to run. There was a tremendous bang. I kept running. I didn't realize I'd been hit until I looked down and there was blood all over me."

"It exploded two feet away from me. I guess it's a miracle I'm still alive," said Spec. 4 John Arnett, 19, of Louisville, Ky.

Staff Sgt. Ireneo Mayo of the Philippines said he had just stopped to light a cigarette when, "Boom, the first thing I knew I was on the ground."

The four men are attached to a helicopter company at Soctrang, in the Communist-infested Mekong delta. They were on their first weekend leave in Saigon.

In all, eight Americans were wounded in the terrorist attack.

The four still hospitalized suffered multiple shrapnel wounds but were reported in good condition.

Saigon has had hundreds of terrorist attacks in the past 10 years. The Communists are expected to step up such attacks during May, which contains several Communist and Vietnamese holidays.

Rockets Withdrawal From Cuba Reported

WASHINGTON (AP)—The belief is current here that the Soviet Union may have pulled its ground-to-air rockets from Cuba, depriving Fidel Castro of the means to blast American planes from the skies over his island.

If true, there is less likelihood that the fiery dispute over surveillance flights will erupt in a clash of arms. A Soviet rocket withdrawal would go a long way toward explaining the Red prime minister's May Day assertion that Cuba is alone in her dispute with the United States.

Castro has conceded that his armed forces cannot shoot down the high-flying American planes without the Soviet rockets. Thus, when he said on May Day that "we will prevent these flights to the limits of what our weapons can do," he may have—in a veiled way—been revealing a new weapons limitations.

The Soviet rockets are a remnants of the 1962 arms and manpower buildup which reached crisis proporitions when detected by U.S. intelligence. Soon after a showdown that October, the Russians pulled out their intermediate ballistic missiles and began reducing their armed forces.

Two weeks ago, authorities here reported about 3,000 Russians remained on the island, but that they would soon be withdrawn, leaving in Cuban hands 24 antiaircraft missile bases equipped with Soviet rockets. Now the word is that the missiles have been removed along with some troops, but that a large proportion of the military force remains.

Bulgarian Churchgoers, Youths Engage In Riot

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — The Soviet bloc's second riot in three days broke out in Sofia as Communist youths blocked the path of Bulgarian Orthodox church-goers en route to Easter Mass.

Youth groups demonstrations during Prague's May Day celebration Friday turned into battles with Czechoslovak police and resulted in 31 announced arrests.

The official Czech news agency, CTK, confirmed the disturbances in Prague, but Bulgarian government agencies remained silent about the clashes in Sofia.

Reports from Sofia said hundreds of churchgoers had been involved in clashes with both police and Communist youths.

Entrances to Aleksander Nevsky Cathedral in Sofia were blocked by youths shouting atheist slogans. Police closed the cathedral doors to prevent incidents, and the fighting ensued.

Patriarch Cyril, spiritual leader of the Bulgarian Orthodox Church, was to have celebrated the Resurrection Mass, climax of the Orthodox Easter celebration.

An announcement said the patriarch was ill and Bishop Nikolai, rector of the Academy of Theology, had taken the patriarch's place.

Governors Disagree On Water Plans

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The governors of California and Oregon offered separate proposals today for ending the West's historic fight over water.

California's Edmund G. Brown called for creation of a Western States Water Commision to guide federal studies looking toward a regional pooling of water resources.

At the same time he pleaded for a settlement of differences between California and Arizona over water rights.

'HANDS OFF'

Oregon's Mark O. Hatfield indirectly suggested hands-off tapping his state's streams for exports to Southern California and urged westerners to develop their own program.

Brown has endorsed Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall's Pacific Southwest water plan in prinicple. Hatfield said the plan "leaves much to be desired."

The neighboring chief executives presented their views in statements to the 13-state Western Governors' Conference as it opened a three-day session.

Brown, in a welcoming speech, traced the leaping growth of the entire West and said it has become "America's window of the future."

'PETTY ACTS'

In an obvious reference to California's dispute with Arizona over water rights, Brown said, "It is unreasonable that one western state should engage in petty skirmishes and acts of reprisal against another western state."

At another point he said: "The longer this controversy continues, the greater danger we run of losing the attention and the sympathy of Western states, whose representatives must vote to appropriate money for reclamation projects in the West." The conflict is harmful to every single western state."

Mead Theater If There Is One

Architect Ralph B. Priestly will report to Tamalpais High School District trustees at their meeting at 8 p.m. today on the progress of remodeling of Mead Theater at Tamalpais High School.

Trustees want to know whether remodeling work will be completed on the outdoor theater in time for June 14 graduation exercises.

Principal Robert H. Prather met Friday with Priestly and representatives of Zoellner Construction Co. of Ross but said no definite forecast could then be made. He said there is a possibility of using the mountain theater should Mead not be ready.

Six States Poise For Primary Votes

By Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — Voters in six states and the District of Columbia go to the polls tomorrow in the biggest primary election day of the year.

National attention will focus on three states—Indiana, Ohio and Alabama—where the outcomes could influence the Republican and Democratic presidential tickets.

In Florida, New Mexico and Oklahoma, voters will choose candidates for local, state and congressiional offices only.

In the District of Columbia, where residents this year will vote of the first time in the November elections, the primary will be limited to the selection of party committeemen to represent the district at the national conventions. The district's presidential preference election, originally scheduled for tomorrow, was called off after a federal court ruled it illegal.

Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama, running for the democratic presidential nomination as a states' rights candidate, is expected to make a strong showing in Indiana. He is opposed by Indiana Gov. Matthew E. Welsh, a favorite son pledged to President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater will try to collect 32 delegates pledged to him in the Republican primary. Goldwater is opposed only by Harold E. Stassen and two unknowns.

In Alabama, the principal race involves two opposing slates of presidential electors. Wallace is the real issue. The governor is backing an unpledged slate of electors, who would remain free to vote in the electoral college for some Democrate other than the party nominee. Opposing them is a slate pledged to vote for Johnson.

The unpledged electors plan is designed to give the South bargaining power in the electoral college, which meets in December to elect the president officially. They would threaten to withhold their votes from the party candidate, if the popular election in November were close.

Backing the pledged slate are Alabama Sens. Lister Hill and John Sparkman, along with Rep. Albert Rains.

Ohio voters won't get a chance to show a preference for the presidential nomination when they go to the polls. Instead, both parties are offering favorite son candidates with no opposition. On the Republican presidential preference ballot is Gov. John A. Rhodes and on the Democratic ballot is Cuyahoga County Chairman Albert S. Porter.

Ohio commits its national convention delegates to vote for the primary winner only on the first nomination ballot. Goldwater is claiming that he will get as many as 42 of the state's 58 Republican delegates after their initial vote for Rhodes at the July 13 convention.

The Democratic delegates are committed to vote for Johnson at the party's national convention Aug. 24.

Presidential politics is not involved in the other states with primaries. Florida will have its presidential preference primary May 26, and New Mexico and Oklahoma will select their national delepates at state conventions.

Smith, Sports Cars In Fourth Gear

Two months ago JERRY SMITH was a newcomer to KTIMarin but he's already in high gear. We may have mentioned that he's one of the best known sports and racing car announcers on the coast . . . With such affairs as Laguna Seca and Grand Prix as background, Jerry set out to bring a top flight sports car program to KTIM listeners Friday nights, 5:45 to 6 o'clock . . .

HE HAS the happy faculty for succeeding — like Don Helbig, the Marin Visitors Bureau president, when he said of MAY IN MARIN last February — "Let's do it!" . . . Jerry Smith felt we needed a good sports show for the hundreds (maybe thousands) of sport and import bugs in the county. And who do you think backed up his "Let's do it!" — LEON C. FELTON CO. . . . If you missed program number one there'll be another next FRIDAY night and every Friday night for the next six months . . . If you don't have a sports car, Jerry will have suggestions on that, too . . .

WE DON'T RUN contests often at KTIM, and prefer quality when we do . . . First week winners of the May in Marin limerick contest (really a rhyming contest — our verses have only four lines) got tickets to the beautiful Beethoven concert of MAESTRO KRIPS . . . But like May in Marin — there are several weeks more fun yet to come. So, if you're good at LAST LINES — listen to KTiMarin . . . Congrats to: Mrs. E. Gilman, Mrs. Charles Vincent, Mark Daveler, Gerald Sher, Gail O'Leary. Here is one of the winners:

In the merry, merry month of May,
Everyone comes to Marin to play.
Concerts, parades, so much to do,
AM SO GLAD WE LIVE HERE, TOO!

GOOD LUCK to KARL BARRON(who this week has reached the time of his life for doing what he really wants to do . . . Karl has retired from radio and KTIMarin to devote more time to the stage, with some public relations activity in between . . . Karl's contribution to our success dates back 11 years. We'll miss him.

Heavy Voting Expected In Lagunitas

A large voter turnout is expected for tomorrow's special election in the Lagunitas School District to decide if trustee Georgette Vilas will be recalled.

There are 1,093 registered voters in the district. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The only candidate for her position, if Mrs. Vilas is removed from office, is William G. McBride, 48, building inspector and zoning administrator for the Town of Corte Madera.

Petitions demanding Mrs. Vila's ouster were filed at the Marin County Schools office Feb. 13. The action was prompted by strong feeling against the school board's 3-to-2 vote accepting the forced resignation of Supt. Clifford L. Frye in December, in which Mrs. Vilas voted with the majority.

She has been on the Lagunitas School Board since 1958 and lives at 168 Central Avenue, Woodacre, with her husband, Robert, a bank executive.

She has two children, David, 20, and Renee, 16, and has lived in San Geronimo Valley for 16 years.

Her opponent, McBride, has been a leader in the drive to oust Mrs. Vilas. A native of Seattle, Wash., he lives at 111 Meadow Way, San Geronimo, with his wife, the former Patricia Champie of Santa Venetia, and their eight children.

He is Corte Madera's building inspector. He is a graduate of University of Washington and has lived in Woodacre since 1956.

Deputies Accuse Boy Of Chain-Whipping Girl

A 16-year-old Marin City youth was arrested and placed in juvenile hall early yesterday, accused of beating a 15-year-old girl about the face with a chain in her bedroom.

The sheriff's office said the youth also did extensive damage to furniture, clothing and fixtures in the room as he swung the chain.

Victim of the attack was Mildred Howard, 15, of 74 Cole Drive, Marin City. Deputies said the girl inflicted a deep stab wound on the boy's left arm as she attempted to defend herself.

They said Miss Howard suffered bruises and cuts on her nose and upper lip. They were called by the girl's mother, Mrs. Gladys A. Gray, after the youth had left her home.

In the meantime, he and two teen-age companions went to Marin General Hospital for treatment of the stab wound in his arm. Informed of this, deputies took the three youths to the sheriff's office for questioning.

After further treatment at San Rafael General Hospital, the youth was booked for maliscious mischief and assault with a deadly weapon, then taken to juvenile hall.

Mrs. Gray told deputies the boy had been at their home on a social visit when he became angry and began the attack.

Convertible Stolen

William H. Cole of 31 East Circle Drive, Tiburon, told the sheriff's office someone stole a 1963 Corvette convertible from his carport sometime Thursday night. Cole said he had locked the ignition but left the car itself unlocked.

Tiburon Tavern Window Shattered, Five Arrested

Five men in their early 20s were arrested in Tiburon early Saturday, charged with breaking the front window of the Harbor Light Tavern at 20 Main Street.

The five, who denied the action, were charged with maliscious mischief after they were identified by Arthur R. Formanek, proprietor of the tavern.

They are Charles Gunn Denicke, 23, of Camino Bueno Drive, Ross; Robert Hamilton Mosher, 21, of 535 Summit Avenue, Mill Valey; Richard Heron Gillespie, 23, of San Francisco; Gerald Mackelcan Gunn, 22, of 35 Prospect Avenut, Sausalito, and James Jonathan Lucas, 22, of 24 Matilda Avenue, Mill Valley.

Formanek told sheriff's deputies he saw the youths flee in two foreign made sedans after the window was smashed at 2:05 a.m.

Deputies stopped cars fitting the description nearby and returned the five men to the tavern, where Formanek and Carlos M. Fong of 909 Blithedale Avenue, Mill Valley, identified them.

All but Denicke were scheduled to appear in court today. He will appear at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow.

A COLD MAY IN MARIN—The enthusiasm of children for a parade could not be killed even by a cold, damp wind that hit Novato yesterday during the loyalty day parade sponsored by Donald V. Westlund Post 7816, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Here some of the youngsters brave the wind to watch the Novato High School band come down Grant Avenue.

Wintry Weather Nips Novato Parade Buffs

A small and cold crowd braved a strong wind yesterday to watch the Loyalty Day parade on Novato's Grant Avenue.

Many of the people watched the parade from the warmth of their cars after a sprinkle of rain just before the start of the march dampened their spirits.

There wasn't much lingering of the marching units as the parade made its way from Seventh Street and Grant Avenue down Grant Avenue to Machin Avenue, then to Sweetzer Avenue where it broke up in front of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall. It took just about 45 minutes for the 53 entries to go the full parade route.

The nationally famous Flying Rifles drill team from Hamilton Air Force Base won the grand prize in the parade. The Santa Rosa Compions drum and bugle corps won the judges' prize.

A special trophy was awarded to Louis A. Cavallero, commander of Donald V. Westlund Post 7816 of Veterans of Foreign Wars, for his work in organizing the parade.

First place awards were given to the Marine Corps float, "Flag Raising on Mount Surabachi," which was also a first place winner in the May in Marin parade Saturday, the Novato 4-H club junior drill team, and the Santa Rosa Campions drill team.

Second place awards went to Tomales High School band and majorettes; V.F.W. Post 1006 with Mrs. Henry H. Arnold; Goat Rock Pup Tent 25, Military Order of Cooties; Deborah Hagler, and Ramona Winter.

Third place awards went to the Larkspur fire department, Kentfield fire department, Hilltop Banditos, and Bel Marin Keys.

The Novato Chamber of Commerce and Kiwanis Club donated the trophies.

Academy Alumni Defy Showers For Reunion

Rain failed to dampen the hopes of the San Rafael Military Academy to draw 1,500 guests to its 74th annual Alumni Day yesterday, according to A. C. Agnew, the academy's business administrator.

The expected number, including 200 alumni, watched drill competitions in which Company B, led by Cadet Capt. Peter M. Carlson of Vallejo, won the group event.

Mark Jory of Stockton won the Upper School individual competition while Dennis Winkleman of Belvedere won the Lower School division.

Only event rained out was a scheduled outdoor band concert, Agnew said.

PRIZES

for their expose of numbers rackets operations with police collusion in South Philadelphia, resulting in arrests and police department cleanup.

The prize for distinguished editorial writing went to Hazel Brannon Smith of the Lexington (Miss.) Advertiser "for steadfast adherence to her editorial duties in face of great pressure and opposition."

The award for editorial cartooning went to Paul Conrad of the Denver Post—now on the staff of the Los Angeles Times—for his distinctive work during the entire year rather than for any one cartoon.

The Pulitzer Prizes in journalism carry awards of $1,000, except for the meritorious service citation, which is a gold medal and for the special citation. In the cases of the multiple awards the recipients shared the prize money.

Trial On Peyote Possession Slated

Charles M. Berven, 22, Kent Woodlands resident charged with illegal possession of peyote, is scheduled for trial in Marin Superior Court on June 16.

He allegedly had 70 buttons of the hallucination-causing cactus at the family home, 70 Rancheria Road, on March 26.

LODGE

expressions as "it's not fair" for Lodge to remain away while his opponents spend money and energy to express their views personally to Oregon Republican voters.

Following are the views of the supporters of major GOP candidates in the state's primarmy:

Backers of:	Say Lodge should remain in Saigon
Lodge	72 per cent
Goldwater	62
Rockefeller	56
Nixon	55

On the issue of the war in Vietnam, here are the findings on the question of whether the war should be stepped-up against the Communists:

Step up war efforts	40%
Cut back war efforts	15%
Continues as we are	20%
Undecided	25%

Men adopted a somewhat tougher attitude toward the Communists in Vietnam than the women polled. But the opinions of Democrats and Republicans were almost parallel.

Findings were also tabulated by preference for the major Republican presidential candidates. Here, Goldwater supporters showed the strongest inclination for a harder war effort and those backing Lodge the least.

Conservation Club Supports Linking Parks

A plan which will link Mount Tamalpais State Park with Samuel P. Taylor State Park was given hearty endorsement by the Tamalpais Conservation Club at its annual meeting yesterday.

About 100 members attended the session, at which they praised the expected takeover of some 16,000 acres of land now owned by the Marin Municipal Water District to the state Division of Beaches and Parks, according to Mrs. Verna Dunshee, a past president of the club.

Mrs. Lilas Mugg of San Francisco was re-elected president, Roy Binns of San Francisco was re-elected vice president and Mrs. Marian Skelly was elected secretary. Members created a new post of financial secretary, then chose Mrs. Evelyn Engle for the office.

Kenneth Ford of Mill Valley was named trail chairman.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

TOO-FAMILIAR SCENE ON HIGHWAY

Dale Harris, 36, of Redwood City grimaces with pain after his 1950 Plymouth sedan hit a trailer being pulled by a truck driven by Manuel Joseph, 59, of 1458 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, on Highway 101 north of Tomahawk Lodge, Novato, at 10 p.m. Saturday. Harris suffered chest injuries and cuts and bruises on right shoulder, nose and knees. He was reported in "satisfactory" condition today at Novato General Hospital. The highway was slick with rain as Harris braked too late and hit the trailer, causing it to jackknife and overturn the truck. He was cited for having no driver's license in his possession. Fire Losses Decrease— More Prevention Work

Fire losses in San Rafael dropped more than $100,000 last year and fire prevention work increased, according to Fire Chief Vance Trivett.

In his annual report of department activities, Trivett reported that the 1963 fire losses totaled $40,021 as compared to $182,086 for 1962.

The breakdown on the losses was: $20,419 for commercial and apartment buildings and contents, and $19,602 for dwellings and contents.

During the year the people of San Rafael cooperated with the Bureau of Fire Prevention and "through this cooperation many potential fire hazards have been eliminated," Chief Trivett said.

Inspection work under the Bureau of Fire Prevention "materially increased" during 1963, he said. There were more building inspections made and, as a result, more recommendations to eliminate fire hazards, he said.

During Fire Prevention Week, the bureau distributed home fire prevention material and gave home fire safety talks to approximately 1,400 pupils in San Rafael schools.

The department displayed equipment and handed out fire prevention material to approximately 800 persons at the Montecito Shopping Center Oct. 19, 1963.

Firemen also gave talks and demonstrations to approximately 400 members of service clubs, mothers' clubs and other organizations.

During 1963 there were 63 vehicle fires, 45 false alarms, 43 electrical fires, 38 grass fires, 31 fires caused by smoking and matches, 28 caused by kitchen hazards, six chimney fires, five fires caused by hot ashes, sparks or coals, and four caused by defective appliances.

Firemen also went out on 51 resuscitator calls, 49 lockout calls, 29 rescue or emergency calls and seven boat sinkings.

Only once did they get a call because there was a monkey on an electric wire and that was last October.

Chief Trivett said that training has become more difficult because of the addition of a third fire station and commented in an accompanying letter to the Board of Fire Commissioners that an effort should be made to establish a full time training officer in the department.

Novato Group Will Consider Park Pay Plan

A proposed ordinance requiring subdividers to pay into a park acquisition fund, or donate land for a park is the main item to be considered by the Novato Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission when it meets at 8 tonight in the Community House.

The commission has been studying ordinances from other cities in drafting one for Novato. If approved by the commission, it will be submitted to the city council for passage.

Robert Lagle, city planning director, will make a report on his study of the park requirements for the city.

Other items to be considered by the commission include the city's help in maintenance of the Little League baseball fields, using lands near the county airport for recreation and changing the meeting nights.

Rare Flower Highlights Stinson Show

A Larkspur, a flower termed "very rare" by the collectors for the Stinson Beach wild flower show, was one of the highlights of the weekend show.

Despite showers, about 1,700 people attended the seventh annual event, one of the early activities in the "May In Marin" month of festivities.

Helen MacGavin of Bolinas, accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Shockey of Stinson Beach, found the Larkspur, botanically called Delphinium Bakeri, in the north of Marin.

Admissions were not tallied today, said Mrs. Edward Leary, a show sponsor, but benefits will be used to continue the landscaping of the community center buildings, the firehouse, chapel and center.

Mrs. Leary, Mrs. Shockey and Mrs. William Sherfey, sponsors, drove about 1,500 miles to get approximately 600 varieties of flowers. "It was a poor year this year," said Mrs. Sherfey, "because of little sping rain. Nothing was blooming above 4,000 feet."

Many of the wild flowers from the show were given to the College of Marin for addition to the college's herbarium, and these flowers are to be mounted by biology students, according to Noel Nelson, biology instructor.

Youths Quietly Pick Up San Rafael City Reins

There were no earthshaking developments or chaos in San Rafael today, as teen-agers took over the reins of government for "Youth in Government Day."

In fact, young "Mayor" Ron Clausen, senior class president at San Rafael High School, and his officers ran the city administration so smoothly that the public at large was scarcely aware that their city was in such tender hands.

Mayor John F. McInnis and the regular city staff worked alongside the youth leaders as advisers to assure the smooth functioning of the city.

The concensus of the student city officials was that "San Rafael seems to be running very efficiently.

"Mayor" Clausen is in favor of having an appointed instead of an elected police chief. But "Police Chief" John Bradley (student counterpart of Chief Charles J. Chiesa) said he favors the present system of electing the chief.

"Since the chief works closely with the people, he should be in direct contact with them," said young Bradley. "I think election will give direct representation."

Student "City Mgr." Eike Von Oppeln (counterpart of City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen) said he tends toward favoring appointment of the chief rather than election. But he admitted he is not well enough acquainted with city government to have a firm conviction either way.

During the noon hour today, student government leaders joined regular city officials for luncheon at the Elks Club before resuming their "city duties" in the afternoon.

Catholic High Senior Class Slates Play

The senior class at Marin Catholic High School will present "The Skin of Our Teeth" by Thornton Wilder at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

Tim Truett and Margretta Shine will play the roles of Mr. and Mrs. Antrobus of Excelsior, New Jersey. The Antrobus' children will be portrayed by Susan Schroth, Diane Keesmatt and John LaBoyteau, and Sabina, the family's maid, will be played by Carolyn King.

The cast also includes Theresa Komo as the fortune teller, Peter Del Tredici, a dinosaur, and Philip Cassou as a mammoth.

The play will be directed by Cliff Werden, member of the Ross Valley Players and faculty member at Neil Cummins School in Corte Madera.

Tickets are available from any Marin Catholic High School student or may be purchased at the door on the night of the performance.

At Kent School

Marin county supervisor William D. Fusselman spoke Friday to eighth grade students at the Adaline E. Kent School, not the Henry C. Hall School, as reported in Saturday's Independent-Journal.

Big Increase In Property Tax In Cities

Property taxes levied by Marin County and its cities have increased by more than 69 per cent in four years, the California Taxpayers Assn. announced today.

The total jumped from 17.9 million dollars in 1960 to 30.4 million dollars this year, according to the association's executive director, S. J. Arnold.

Marin's total was compared with what the association described as "the appalling total" of nearly 2.9 billion dollars for the entire state.

This, it said, represents an increase of 41 per cent in taxes in the state during a period when the population increased only 17 per cent.

Split of the local property tax dollar in Marin was shown by the association to be 58.3 cents for school districts, 25.5 cents for the county itself, 8.8 cents for cities and 7.4 cents for special districts.

Exact figure listed for this year in Marin County was $30,414,569.

Strike Violence Threatens Junta

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — A threat to the Dominican Republic's seven-month-old ruling junta appears to be developing from a transport strike which touched off violence in the capital.

Military and civilian leaders held separate conferences examining the situation.

Police failed to halt demonstrations Sunday that accompanied the strike of taxi and bus drivers.

Unruly crowds burned tires; smashed bottles and dumped garbage in Santo Domingo streets.

Employer Award Due Postmaster

Postmaster John T. Little of Mill Valley will be awarded the outstanding employer award of the state veterans employment committee in a ceremony at 7:30 p.m. on May 14 at the American Legion building in San Rafael.

The ceremony is held in observance of national Hire a Veteran Week and the award made for the placement of veterans and handicapped veterans in the Mill Valley post office.

Area Flooded Three Hours

A broken water main flooded streets at the intersection of Miller Creek Road and Quietwood Drive in Marinwood at 11:23 a.m. yesterday, the Marinwood Fire Department reported.

Crews of the Marin Municipal Water District had the 18-inchc main back in service by 2:20 p.m.

The break caused traffic to be blocked off, as well as interrupting service in the area and putting one fire hydrant out of commission until repairs were finished.

Drivers Urged To Avoid Project

San Rafael police today urged motorists to avoid the storm sewer construction project underway on Second Street.

The Second Street-Lincoln Avenue intersection is open to eastbound traffic, but westbound traffic is being detoured.

Westbound drivers on Highway 101 should take the Belle Avenue turnoff to gain access downtown San Rafael, police recommended.

Drivers traveling southbound should use Third Street instead of Second Street, police said.

Supervisors Face Road Need Report

Marin County will need another 417 miles of roads by 1974, at a cost of $70,684,000, according to a deficiency report to be delivered to the board of supervisors tomorrow.

The report was drawn up under a requirement of state law, but Public Works Director Donald R. Frost said he does not expect to see the roads built, at least not to the standards recommended by the state.

Of the total amount, 145.7 miles, with a cost of $40,281,000, would be primary roads.

Frost will also ask tomorrow for authorization to start recruiting an administrative assistant for his office, saying that the new state requirements for written detailed reports, plus the general increases in office work, has flooded the present workers and has diverted engineers from engineering jobs.

The supervisors will also take another stab at settling the differences between the Sorptimists and the Marin Art and Garden Fair. The matter was turned over to a volunteer arbitrator, Mrs. Wallace B. Scott, last week, but no reconciliation was reached.

The Soroptimists have complained that the proposed location this year of their fresh fruit juice stand at the fair will bring in less revenue than in years past.

The board will listen to Welfare Director Betty L. Presley discuss the question of whether the county should require repayment of welfare grants made under the general relief program when welfare recipients do work for the county under the work and training program.

The county's policy is to require repayment, but the policy preceded the new work training program. County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney has said he doubts the county can legally collect such funds.

The board has also been asked by the Marin-Sonoma local of the Teamsters Union to work toward a broader interpretation of the law allowing direct welfare payments to venders, rather than cash payments to recipients.

Elizabeth Coyle, program supervisor for the welfare department, said Friday that Marin's policy has been in favor of cash payments except in the few cases where money mismanagement has been too serious a problem to handle except by direct payments to sellers or landlords.

The Northern California Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, in a letter to the board, has requested action to assure better landscaping around the pole houses in Marin City, saying that the present arrangements have turned out to be as aesthetically unpleasing as the group predicted they would in 1962.

The board will receive plans and specifications for the construction and relocation of Mar West Street, Tiburon, and are expected to call for bids.

International Investment Co., developers of Gallinas Village, have asked for an extension in the filing of the final map on the next unit of the Santa Venetia subdivision.

Zoning for Point San Quentin, an amendment to the Marinwood Master Plan and discussion of construction of a road to Harbor Point will be handled on the planning section of the supervisors' agenda.

Roosevelt Talk Set Saturday

Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Los Angeles) will discuss the "inside story" of the race for United States Senate at a San Rafael potluck dinner Saturday night.

His talk is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. at the Alan Cranston headquarters in San Rafael, the old Elks Club Building at Fifth Avenue and B Street. The dinner is sponsored by the Marin Council of Democratic Clubs, headed by President Robert Politzer. Mrs. John McRee of Mill Valley is chairman of the dinner.

Congressman Roosevelt is appearing for the campaigns of Alan Cranston for U. S. Senate, Vera Schultz of Mill Valley for State Senate, and James E. Pockrus of Rohnert Park for assemblyman.

Rapid Transit On Richmond Span Would Be Beneficial

Many agencies are publicly agreeing that a comprehensive study of where and how to provide another vehicular crossing between Marin and San Francisco is needed, right now.

A rather substantial state allocation may be forthcoming for such a study. The Golden Gate Bridge board has indicated its receptiveness for suggestions that bridge toll revenues might be used for the needed study.

Thus it appears that a study will soon be undertaken. And this will be a valuable first step toward the ultimate aim of easing traffic congestion between Marin and San Francisco.

Senator Jack McCarthy is among those who have long been concerned with this problem. He periodically has made efforts to get state agencies on the track of possible solutions.

And he is moving in that direction again during the present session of the legislature in Sacramento.

He authored a resolution asking the California Toll Bridge Authority to seek a study of the feasibility of putting rapid transit rails on the Richmond-San Rafael bridge.

If this could be done, as suggested by Supervisor Peter Behr and others, it would link Marin with the Bay Area Rapid Transit system already under construction in the East Bay. Rapid transit could very well have the effect of reducing the number of private cars commuting daily to San Francisco.

McCarthy's resolution already has been adopted by both houses of the legislature. Now he is following up with a bill to provide $12,000 for the study. This bill has already been passed by the senate and sent to the assembly.

If this possibility proves feasible, Marin may have commuter relief much more quickly and more inexpensively than we have expected.

We hope the McCarthy bill is approved by the assembly, and signed by the governor. We hope the resultant studies prove favorable to rapid transit.

You Can Help Handicapped Help Selves

If you've been thinking of spring cleaning, now is the time to rummage through that attic or basement for clothing, furniture and appliances.

National Goodwill Week, proclaimed by President Lyndon B. Johnson, hits pretty close to home. San Rafael has one of the 127 Goodwill workshops scattered throughout the nation to provide vocational training and employment to 60,000 persons. Some 30,000 others receive counseling, therapy and medical assistance.

And this year, San Francisco Goodwill will try a pilot program of providing jobs to juvenile delinquents and emotionally disturbed teen-agers from broken and low income homes. Success of this program depends on the amount of donations in clothing, furniture and appliances.

Call Goodwill Industries to pick up your donations, or deliver direct to the Goodwill store in San Rafael. Your donations will help the handicapped help themselves.

The Merry Month Of May

May was named for the mother of Mercury—Maia, a Roman goddess. To the Old Dutch it was "Blossoming Month." To the Anglo-Saxons it was "Three-Milkings Month," because the cows were milked three times a day.

In England, May is the month of the maythorn or hawthorn. Marin's hawthorns are past their prime when May rolls around, but there are a few blossoms left.

May in Marin is a merry prelude to summer—the happy time which Marinites look forward to with its outdoor living.

RULES, RULES, RULES

Liquor Industry Most Regulated Of Any In State Of California

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The alcoholic beverage industry in California no doubt is the most closely regulated industry in the state, if not in the entire nation.

When prohibition was repealed in 1933, the returning liquor industry started operation from a little manual, which contained 39 sections of law and five rules.

At present, there are 700 sections of law and 63 rules. In many cases, the rules are much more lengthy and substantive than the laws themselves.

The credit law that was approved by the Legislature in 1963, requiring wholesalers to charge 2 per cent per month on delinquent retailer accounts, takes up about two-thirds of a printed page. The rules which implement the credit law take up more than nine and one-half pages.

"EACH TIME A LAW is added, we have to adopt a rule, or rules, and then interpretation," Malcolm E. Harris, ABC director said. "This industry is so regulated that pretty soon we're writing interpretations of interpretations."

One of the reasons this abundance of laws is being noted at present is that the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control finally has the manpower to begin enforcing some of them. Generally, over the years, the department has concerned itself with enforcing the morals type sections of the law.

Most enforcement efforts have gone toward violations involving minors — sales to minors, permitting minors to consume, employment of minors, etc. These violations, in fact, make up about 60 per cent of the disciplinary cases filed by the department.

OTHER MORALS type violations which come in for strong enforcement on the part of the department include employment of B-girls or female bartenders, sales after hours, permitting gambling on licensed premises, sales to obviously intoxicated persons, or permitting disorderly houses, such as fights, obscene language, or solicitation for acts of prostitution.

Most of the other sections in the liquor law concern business practices and, of these, sales below the fair trade minimum prices make up the bulk. Many of the other sections were added over the years to give one particular segment of the industry an advantage over another.

Stand On Loyalty Oath Is Praised

Editor, Independent-Journal:

We wish to commend the following parties for the role they played in regard to the demand of the Sausalito School Board that a loyalty oath be signed as a condition to receiving one's wages:

1. Mrs. Manche Harvey of Mill Valley for refusing to sign such an oath and subsequently donating two books on civil liberties to the Sausalito Library bought with the donation made to her by a supporter. Her actions showed great integrity, courage and dignity.

2. Mr. Neil Davis of the No Name Bar in Sausalito, the doner. His action helped to dramatize the issue.

3. The Independent-Journal for its front-page news coverage of the matter.

All three have, in their own way, helped to stem the tide eroding our civil liberties.

Young Peoples' Art Show Is Supported

Editor, Independent-Journal:

This is to thank you for your public support of the Novato Society of Advanced Art's Young Peoples' Art Show, and to agree with you that the young people should be left free from restrictions as to how they should express their ideas pictorially. This is noted in our rules and regulations . . . "Since this is an expression of our young people we ask that parents and teachers who volunteer encouragement to such a project leave the entrants free from adult influence or suggestions upon ideas and subject matter."

We hope that all interested young people from 6 to 20 years will participate to help make this first annual show a successful beginning for those to follow in succeeding years. The entry blank is simply a post card with the entrant's name, address, phone, age, grade and school sent to Mrs. Ethan Papineau, 1225 Ridgeview Court, Novato, on or before May 9. Rules and regulations giving media, age groups and entry acceptance dates etc. may be had by requesting same on the entry application blank.

Because of the short time before the entry deadline we hope that parents and teachers will encourage them to participate. We are hopeful too, that the business people and citizens of Marin will respond enthusiastically by helping to reward them for their initiative and endeavors.

Here's Real Case Of Animal Cruelty

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I was most interested in two articles appearing in your paper April 28. On page 9 was a great outcry about President Johnson lifting one of his dogs by the ears. A momentary discomfort, mostly a show of affection, and quickly forgotten and forgiven by the dog; probably even relished, as a bit of rough house usually is by most dogs.

But I certainly can't say as much for the calculated cruelty displayed in a picture on page one of the same issue of the I-J. It shows a poor wild creature that has been "de-fanged and declawed" so as to render it harmless to people who insist on trying to "tame" wild animals. I hope the various Humane Societies, and protesting dog lovers will say something in defense of the poor maimed Margay.

What Makes Story News?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Please tell me what gauge u employ to determine the news value of an item of information?

On the front page of tonight's issue was a feature article — "woman loses cat; woman finds cat." In the same issue, but four pages back, was an insignificant, microscopic announcement that Terra Linda High had won two "superior" ratings at the conference of Music Educators Assn. of Northern California.

The band was also declared the most outstanding one performing at this conference. I think this is news-worthy. I would also like to mention that Gordon Lowe is the band director who inspires this hard-working group of 95 teen-agers. This is something we like to boast about; you didn't even mention it.

School Paper Is Heard From

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Concerning your editorial April 24 on the prizewinning Redwood Bark. If one takes time to investigate there are five other public high schools in the county and I am sure that Redwood is not the only one with a student paper.

Recently the editorial staff of the Tamalpais News attended a journalism conference in Santa Rosa. It was shocking to find that some of the students could not print anything the least bit controversial. Incidently the News brought home two first prizes, one second, and one third for writing, all of the stories had been printed in the school paper.

I feel that we of the Tamalpais News have more freedom to print what we feel is right than most high school papers. We, too, have a great adviser. Miss Ann Rogers could not be more inspiring than the most perfect journalism set-up proposed. She gives us a great deal of freedom to write, print, and editorialize, but she does give us a helping hand when we need one.

. . . Mr. Robert Prather, principal, writes a column for the News. It usually contains material that is controversial, not only in the school, but in the community. This truly represents freedom of the press. . . .

As a student and as news editor of the Tamalpais News I hope that the people are now well informed on the subject of Marin's high school news publications.

BENNETT CERF

THE PUBLIC unveiling of new models of the big automobile manufacturers do not always run as smoothly as they might. With free-loaders jamming the premises, one salesman at an outdoor fair grounds track sent his glittering new chariot off whirling at 80 miles an hour—whereupon all four wheels fell off. Only thing hurt was the publicity manager's pride.

Anther time, a new model was scheduled for unveiling on a temporary stage in a hotel lobby. The curtains parted —and the new model crashed through the platform. The next week a new ad agency was handling that particular account.

'Helpers' Doing Johnson Disservice By Bottling Up Bill On TV Debates

WASHINGTON—When the president comes to deciding whether he will say "I will" or "I won't debate my Republican opponent," it would seem to me he would want to stand up and be counted on that decision — right out in the open, all by himself, taking the political blame or the political credit.

During the past five months President Lyndon B. Johnson has shown that he does not shrink from the hard decisions. Nor is he disposed to ask others to make it appear that they are deciding for him.

But this is exactly what his political "friends" on the Hill are doing for him — or to him—on the TV debate issue.

I wonder if Johnson really relishes this kind of "help."

THIS IS THE way it works: In 1960 Congress passed legislation—applicable for the '60 campaign only—giving the networks authority to provide free time for the Kennedy-Nixon TV debates.

Last year both the House and the Senate renewed the authority.

Now the bill is nicely locked in the House-Senate conference, where it is being kept under lock and key by its Democratic Party managers—Rep. Oren Harris of Arkansas and Sen. Warren Magnuson of Washington, the chairmen of the House and Senate commerce committees.

Talk about a filibuster preventing Congress from voting its will. Harris and Magnuson have a gimmick far more powerful than the filibuster. They simply hide the bill in the congressional locker from which Houdini even couldn't escape.

When anyone gets impatient, Magnuson points to Harris and says it's up to him. Harris yawns and looks the other way. And when really pressed, he hints that he isn't much in favor of the bill reauthorizing the TV debates, though he voted for it in 1960 and again last year.

THE STRATEGY is obvious —and I doubt very much that it comes from the White House.

It is evident that Magnuson and Harris, the self-appointed "protectors" of President Johnson, are holding back the bill in conference, where it can be asphyxiated any time.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and Richard Nixon have all said they would welcome the opportunity to debate the Democratic presidential nominee this fall. There is little doubt Ambassador Lodge would feel the same way.

There is nothing compelling President Johnson to follow out President John F. Kennedy's own willingness to debate. It is certainly Johnson's right to make his own choice.

"I will cross that bridge when I come to it," he said at a recent news conference.

But that's the catch. Magnuson and Harris are preparing to withhold the bridge so that, if the president decides not to cross it, he won't have to appear to step back — the bridge won't be there. No bill, no presidential decision necessary.

I suggest they are doing the president a disservice.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Will U.S. Support New Cuba Attack?

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The Junta Revolucionaria Cubana (JURE) is set to open a guerrilla underground in the Communist-ruled island this month—on the assurance that the U. S. Navy and Coast Guard will not interefere with the "infiltration" of men and supplies.

That promise was given Manuel Ray, leader of JURE. He and members of his "leadership committee" conferred with top Johnson administration officials, including the Central Intelligence Agency.

Still pending are two other major JURE requests:

Several million dollars in funds, light arms and communications equipment.

Intelligence information, particularly from U-2 reconnaissance flights.

Ray told administration authorities that JURE is confident a guerrilla beachhead can be established and announced around May 20, Cuban Independence Day.

HE CLAIMS to have a trained guerrilla force of between 500 and 900, and plans call for "infiltrating" the mountainous region where Castro operated before coming into power in 1959. These JURE troops are being trained and equipped in Venezuela, Mexico and Puerto Rico.

Ray, now a $10,000-a-year employee of the Puerto Rican government, was once minister of public works in the Castro regime and is among the most controversial of the Cuban exile leaders. At the time of the Bay of Pigs invasion, crucial details of the ill-fated operation were withheld from him.

One naval intelligence report credits Ray with aiming at supplanting Castro with a coalition government that would include Communists—"a Castro-type regime without Castro."

The Junta Revolucionaria Cubana has been getting some U. S. financial aid, provided indirectly by the Central Intelligence Agency in payments to a "cut-out" organization; that is, a group handling the legal and other affairs of JURE.

PRESIDENT Lyndon B. Johnson is taking a wait-and-see attitude toward the JURE undertaking.

Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy, a member of the little-known Counter-Insurgency Committee, and Deputy Defense Secretary Cyrus Vance favor supporting the JURE project. Secretary Dean Rusk and the State Department's policy planning council are opposed.

They contend that even covert backing of a move to overthrow Castro would lead to Russian intervention.

STRONG misgivings about the administration's policy on Cuba are one of the reasons Sen. Barry Goldwater shied away from the president's offer to brief Republican presidential candidates on foreign affairs.

The Arizonan is telling colleagues he "expects the administration to make some kind of move on Cuba before election, and I don't propose to be bound by it."

Bubble Blowers Intrigue Visitor; Oysters Are Free—If You Find Any

THE MICE HAVE LEFT Sausalito's Plaza but the bubble blowers remain on sunny days.

On a go-around the other day with a visiting Chilean, Eduardo Latorre, and people-to-people man Larry Jay, we arrived at the plaque in the square which honors Sausalito's sister city, Vina Del Mar, Chile.

Leaning up against the plaque in a sitting position just below the north elephant were three bubble blowers in their late teens, two sandalled, one bearded and one basefoot.

They were blowing bubbles from a bottle of bubble water. The Chilean observed the quaint American custom, then asked his interpreter to get a photograph of the plaque and habituees.

WE TALKED TO George Thompson, city gardener for Sausalito, asking about the mice who live in the park. Thompson said that there were some living there when he first started work for the city but they have disappeared. "There was a cat," he said, "who used to come over from the apartments across the street."

Thompson, who manages 24 parks in all, said the plaza fountain goes on and off automatically by a time clock, starting at 8 a.m. and stopping at 5:30 p.m.

People come to the fountain sometimes to wash their grapes, he said. "It's a temptation to dogs to drink. Many people ask if we keep fish in the fountain. We don't. The water is constantly circulating."

UP HURRICANE GULCH way there was excitement a week ago when a bulldozer, dozing for the new Gulch Service Center on Second Street, hit a well cap, knocking it down into the well.

Dick Hiatt, architect on the center, said the well cover went "down, down, down to some unknown depth like China and finally sounded. Immediately afterward there was an 'explosion' in the laundry 50 feet away."

It seems that the cap cover overfilled the well which runs into another well at the Chinese laundry, La Blanche, at 109 Second Street, flooding the garage a little, according to worker William Lee.

The water is used at the laundry to launder shirts and Hiatt said the unpleasant part is, "Do we have to maintain the water supply the laundry has used 30 years for washing clothes. Water is like life, liberty and pursuit of God's clean air."

An oddity is that at the point where the well was discovered is where there is to be a laundry and dry cleaning establishment, said the architect.

BABE MALONE of Sausalito, arguing for open waterfront in Sausalito last week, advised that there was a development in the State of Washington where the waterfront was lost to the people and things got so bad that there was even a sign on the beach which read, "No picking of oysters." John Rockwell, attorney for Sausalito Properties, Inc., responded to this immediately, saying, "You can have any oysters you can find out there," referring to the proposed Sausalito development.

Now that the nesting season is here we have been noticing a lot of activity going on in the stone leaves of the Corinthian columns on the Bank of America in Mill Valley.

The other morning we found that due to an apparent population explosion, one tiny sparrow got edged out of his straw. Laura Pimentel, about 12, found this bird on the sidewalk, cupped him in her hands and took him away to care for him. Bankman Guido Todaro said, "We feed the birds lettuce."

Long Island Lustier Than Maryland; More Damage At Debutante Parties

WASHINGTON—There was a time when debutante parties used to be covered by society editors, but now they have to be covered by police reporters. Following the famous Wanamaker party on Long Island last summer, eight young bluebloods were just found guilty of wrecking a cottage in Towson, Md., a suburb of Baltimore. The party after the Maryland Hunt Ball caused $1,800 in damage as compared to the $6,000 damage in Southampton, which proves that the Long Island set still gives the better parties.

If the trend continues, this is how a debutante party story will read on the society pages:

"Miss Mary Jane Merryweather made her debut at the Piping Hot Country Club last night with 1,200 guests in attendance. Following a supper dance given by her parents, the party moved over to the rented home of Mr. Chauncey Hogglesworth, where the young socialites enjoyed themselves until dawn.

"Among the guests were Miss Hilary Weepingwillow, wearing a Christian Dior gown, and her escort, Robert Goosepimple III. Mr. Goosepimple, a four-letter man at Harvard, gave a demonstration of his prowess by swinging from a chandelier 14 times across the room before it broke.

"George 'Laddie' Goldstuff Jr., scion to a pillow-making fortune, and his lovely partner, Hilda Mayberry, climbed the drapes to get a better view of the party. They were joined by Edward Trojan and 'Sissy' Carpenter of Bryn Mawr. Punch was served up to the two couples from a rare Baccarat vase that had been in the Hogglesworth family for over a hundred years.

"A great deal of laughter ensued when Mr. Goldstuff threw the vase out of the window after drinking the punch.

"Dancing on the fireplace mantel were Rodney Ruggles and Jeannie Wimple, of the breadcrumb Wimples. While twisting, Jeannie lost her balance, but was saved from falling by grabbing a Cezanne painting which was hanging over the mantel.

"AS THE PARTY went on, it became more exciting. A touch football game was started in the dining room and in place of a football the players used Mr. Hogglesworth's Wedgwood plates. Every time someone missed a pass the spectators cheered.

"While many couples were enjoying themselves on the ground floor, a group of merrymakers went upstairs and started throwing furniture out the window.

"Then someone remembered that it was time for breakfast, so a fire was built in the library and several of the party-goers fried ham and eggs over it, which the famished guests ate with delight.

"When no napkins could be found, Nancy Lou Fingerer cut up curtains from the windows.

"AS DAWN CAME up, the band played 'Auld Lang Syne' and the couples started departing.

"Everyone agreed it was probably the best debutante party of the season and one that they would all remember for years to come.

"As Mr. Goldstuff Sr. said to the district attorney the next morning, 'These kids deserve a little clean fun before they grow up, and I'd rather know where they are than have them roaming the streets.'"

Today is Monday, May 4, the 125th day of 1964 with 241 to follow.

The moon is in its last quarter. The morning star is Saturn. The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1886, 11 persons were killed and 70 wounded in the Haymarket Square labor riot in Chicago.

In 1932, Al Capone, vice overlord of the U.S. and listed by the Justice Department as public enemy No. 1, was imprisoned at Atlanta Penitentiary on income tax evasion charges.

In 1942, The Battle of the Coral Sea began, resulting in a major defeat for the Japanese fleet by the U. S. Navy.

In 1963, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York married Mrs. Margaretta (Happy) Murphy in Poncantinco Hills, N.Y.

A thought for the day — American statesman Daniel Webster once said: "Where tillage begins, other arts follow. The farmers therefore are the founders of human civilization."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Take Your Finesse Like Duke Of York At Bridge

There is reason to believe that the noble Duke of York, some 200 years ago, was a bridge player.

You may remember that he marched his men to the top of the hill and he marched them down again. It's a maneuver that we sometimes see at the bridge table.

West led three top diamonds, forcing South to ruff.

DIFFICULT TASK

South now had a difficult task. He had already lost two diamonds and was sure to lose a heart sooner or later. He therefore had to avoid the loss of any trick at all in the black suits.

Declarer planned to ruff a club in dummy and take the trump finesse. He marched his men to the top of the hill by cashing the ace and king of clubs and ruffing his low club in dummy.

Then South marched his men down again by refusing to take the trump finesse. Instead he led dummy's trump to the ace in his own hand.

SUCCESSFUL MANEUVER

It was a successful maneuver, since West had to drop the king of spades. West promptly clutched his cards closer to the vest and glared at South.

It was a wasted glare, since South had not peeked. South had simply counted up to 13. West had bid both red suits and therefore was known to have at least eight cards in those suits.

West had followed to three rounds of clubs and could therefore have only two spades at most. If West had nine red cards, he could hold only one spade.

THREE SPADES

This meant that East surely had at least three spades. If East had the king of spades South could not capture it by leading one spade from the dummy.

If West had the king of spades, South could not gain by finessing.

In short, a finesse could not possibly win, but South might gain by playing the ace of spades.

QUESTION

Partner opens with one club, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ 7 5 3 2
♥ K 10
♦ 9 5
♣ Q J 9 5 2

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two clubs with most partners.

Some experts want a response in any four-card suit no matter how weak it may be, but most experts draw the line at something like Q-x-x-x or J-10-x-x. With most partners it is unsafe to respond in a completely worthless four-card suit.

Saturday's Answer

Krips Conducting Most Successful

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Saturday afternoon's concert presented by Josef Krips and the San Francisco symphony orchestra at Forest Meadows, San Rafael, was probably one of the most successfully organized musical events ever held in Marin. (See photo)

One of the major occasions in the month-long May in Marin Festival, it drew possibly the largest attendance of anything to take place at Forest Meadows.

People came from all over northern California for the all-Beethoven concert presented by the Dominican convent Alumnae Assn. as a benefit for the new campus for the upper and lower school of the San Domenico School for girls.

According to Sister Mary Thomasine of the Dominican Convent, adviser to the Alumnae group, the concert was sold out. Approximately 3,800 of the 4,000 seats provided, she said, were filled, the empty ones being largely accounted for by patrons and sponsors who bought tickets but were unable to attend.

As for the concert itself, this was unfortunately a different story, with no one to blame. It pointed up again Marin's desperate need for a concert hall adequate for events of this magnitude.

Anyone hearing the symphony for the first time could not imagine how this performance sounded in comparison with those in the opera house.

Whether it was the trees absorption of sound, the effect of the wind, or the inexperience of the orchestra in playing out of doors— a special problem—resonance was almost totally lacking. The more penetrating higher register notes of strings, woodwinds and brasses came through better than the low ones, at least for us—seated about one-third of the distance from the stage.

Delicate pianissimo passages were barely audible, and full volume ones were anemic in comparison with what they should have been.

As a result Beethoven's "Leonora" overture No. 3, the "Dance" and Symphony No. 7, which rises to bacchanalian fury, and especially the "Fate" Symphony No. 5 that encompasses blazing, cosmic sonorities and demoniac humor, were robbed of their full power.

These are some of the most dynamic and dramatc works in all music literature and were well chosen for the occasion. Anything less would have been lost indeed.

But great music is great and Krips is a great conductor to watch, so that despite these problems the concert was enjoyable. It rated a standing ovation at the end.

Titile of the new book, to be published by A. S. Barnes of New York and London, is expected to be "Iambics."

Hub School Board To Discuss Bonds

Trustees of the San Anselmo School District will discuss strategy for passing a twice-defeated bond issue at an adjourned meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the faculty room of Isabel Cook School.

They agreed last week to schedule a new vote July 21 on a $700,000 bond issue and $500,000 school loan proposal. Similar measures were defeated last October and again April 14. Last month's vote, however, narrowly missed the required two-thirds needed for passage.

STEEP CLIMB SEEN IN SCHOOLING COST

Mentally Retarded, Physically Handicapped Training May Get 25 Per Cent Budget Rise

The cost of educating mentally retarded and physically handicapped children of Marin County is expected to jump 25 per cent next fiscal year, to slightly more than $500,000, according to the budget to be submitted tonight to he Marin County board of education.

Major increase in the cost will be borne by the separate school districts of the county, with state aid to increase by a lesser amount. The districts contract with the county schools office to provide the services. Marin is the only county where this is so.

The big increase comes in two areas, salaries of teachers and costs of transportation.

For orthopedically handicapped elementary school children, the budget will increase from 173,840 this year to $203,657 in the 1964-65 fiscal year, if the board approves.

Teachers' salaries in the same category will go from $88,191 to $101,485, including a 5 per cent raise, seniority and education pay increases, and new staff. The non-certificated staff salary increase is from $23,820 to $30,492. Transportation salaries will go from $20,137 to $24,180.

Other transportation costs in this category will go from $15,-117 to $17,200.

Similar increases are found in the proposed budgets for the educable mentally retarded and the trainable mentally retarded.

The increase in the trainable mentally retarded is especially high because the number of classes in the county is to be increased from three to four. The increase includes rental or purchase of new quarters, and hiring of a new teacher and a new matron.

State support for the physically handicapped education will total $111,320, about the same as last year, but support by school districts is expected to jump from $60,130 to $92,337, according to the proposed budget.

In the educable mentally retarded, costs are expected to climb from $153,572 to $187,-782. Among the severely, or "trainable," retarded, costs will go from $71,242 to $106,189.

Local school district costs for the trainable program, along with funds from other local sources, not counting county taxes, will jump from $28,658 to $42,629.

Vandal's Prank Dents Two Commute Buses

Unknown persons caused damage estimated at $1,000 to two Greyhound busses at the Waldo Point bus depot Friday night, the bus company told the Marin County Sheriff's Office.

One bus was used to push the other into a ditch, the sheriff's office said, causing damage to the front of one bus and both ends of the other.

Supreme Court Denies School-Race Hearing

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The U.S. Supreme Court refused today to consider an appeal from a Gary, Ind., Negro parents who lost lower court dicisions on the question of "de facto" which has stirred controversy in other northern cities.

The brief order left standing two lower court decisions against the Gary parents who were represented by the legal defense fund of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

The high court made no comment on the issue. It merely announced that it would not review the case.

Gary authorities said the city school zoning was based solely on residential patterns and did not represent discrimination.

Racial strife over so-called "de facto school segregation has occured in Cleveland, Cincinnati, New York City, Chicago, Los Angeles and other non-southern communities.

In other actions today, the court:

1. Let stand a Jacksonville, Fla., court order that public school teachers and administrators must be assigned without racial consideration. The order also barred discrimination in construction of schools, the budgeting of funds and school maintenance.

2. Agreed to decide whether an individual must acknowledge belief in a supreme being to qualify as a conscientious objector in the military draft. Three separate cases were appealed to the court with two federal appeals courts differing on the issue.

3. Ruled unanimously that John Coleman, a negro sentenced to death in Alabama, is entitled to a hearing on his claim that negroes were systematically excluded from both the grand jury which indicted him and the trial jury which found him guilty of murdering a white man.

4. Reversed the conviction of a Norfolk, Va., woman on prostitution charges on grounds police had obtained evidence by planting a micraphone in her bathroom.

REASONABLY PRICED room accommodations in New York for World's Fair visitors have become somewhat of a problem, according to Jack Leone, former employee in the Independent-Journal circulation department and now sports writer for Newsday, a Long Island newspaper. But it is being partly solved, Jack wrote his father, Julian Leone, I-J circulation manager, by the newly organized Visitors Temporary Rental Service, 220 West 42nd Street, New York.

Proprietor Evelyn Lane is lining up accommodations by contacting landlords with extra rooms, and now has a long waiting list. Weekly rent for one room ranges from $20 to $30, Leone reported.

Novato Gains Marin Bank Branch Office

Bank of Marin today received state approval to open a branch in Novato, president William P. Murray J.r announced.

The branch will be the second for the state-chartered bank which was opened in San Rafael in November, 1962. A branch was established last year in Petaluma.

Murray said the Novato branch will be located somewhere on the west side of the business district. He said it is hoped to have it open for business within two months.

Nearly 800,000 U.S. businesses, or one out of every six, are automotive, according to the National Automobile Club.

Leasing Is Up At Universities

NEW YORK (UPI) — The leasing fad is now catching on in the academic world.

Colleges and universities, increasingly hard pressed for student housing as a result of booming enrollments, acquire use and eventual ownership of new dormitories under a "pay-as-you-go" lease plan offered by C.I.T. Educational Buildings Inc.

Lease payments, over a maximum of 12 years, are met out of normal student room rentals.

Television Used By More Banks

NEW YORK (UPI)—More than 30 banks around the United States now use the Diebold-RCA closed circuit television system for drive-up banking.

The depositor in his car and the teller inside the bank building see each other and talk by television and exchange money and papers by pneumatic tubes.

May In Marin Gets Under Way With Colorful Parade

WAITING FOR THE PARADE — Small fry were much in evidence in the crowd of thousands that lined Fourth Street in San Rafael Saturday morning for the May in Marin parade. And of course they had to have balloons.

SAN FRANCISCO SYMPHONY IN MARIN—The greatest crowd ever to attend an outdoor musical event in Forest Meadows was on hand for the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra's all-Beethoven concert Saturday afternoon, a major event of May in Marin's weekend. Sometimes the wind whipped away the musical notes, but the throng gave an ovation to conductor Joseph Krips and the orchestra.

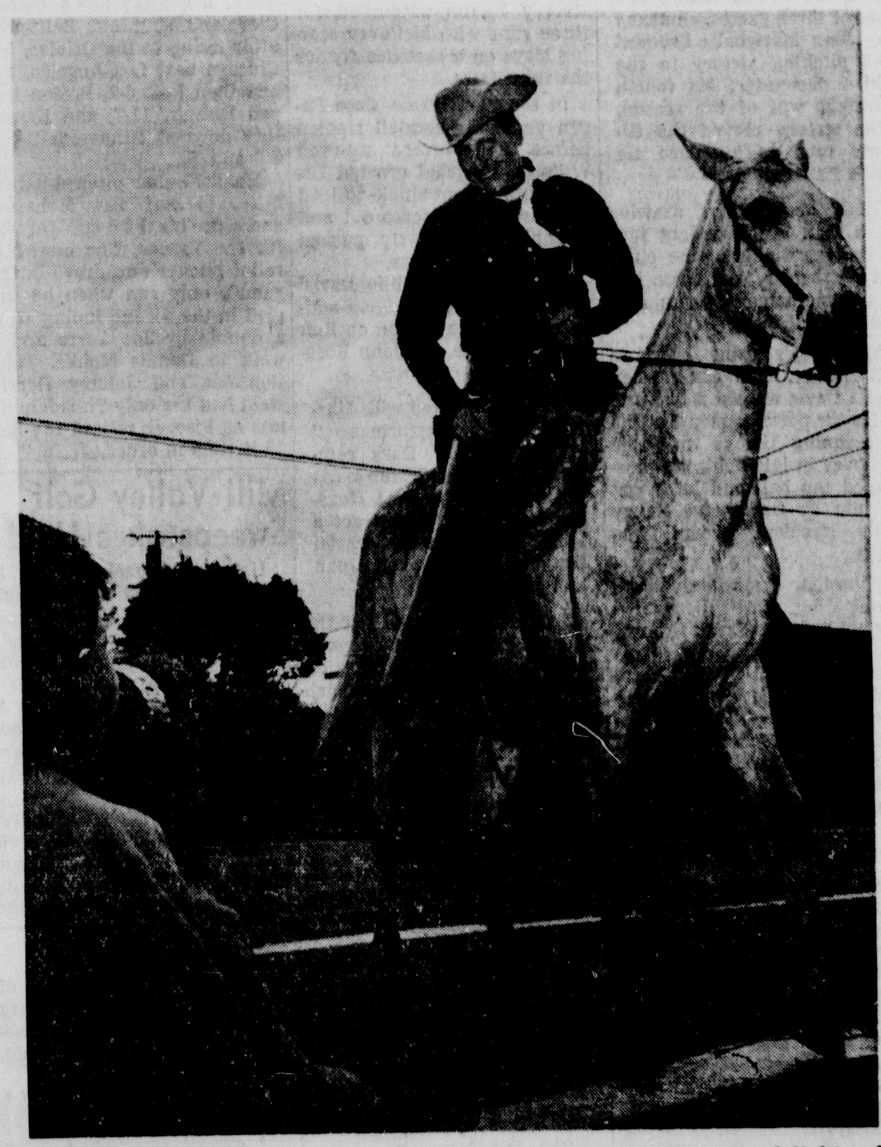

STORM CENTER — The San Anselmo Firemen's Club, with an old but shiny hose truck, made its own "weather" as it rolled up Fourth Street in the parade. The spouting truck won second place for novelty entries.

FLAG RAISING ON IWO JIMA—Marines re-enacted the famous flag raising scene atop Mount Suribachi on Iwo Jima on the Marine Corps float which won a first award in the May in Marin parade. Smoke bombs added to the realism of the combat scene, shown as the float rolled up the courthouse.

THEY LOVE A PARADE—The morning was a bit on the chilly side, but the rain held off while the May in Marin parade proceeded up Fourth Street before watching and cheering thousands. Here's the sight from the reviewing stand. (Rep. Don H. Clausen turned toward camera at left).

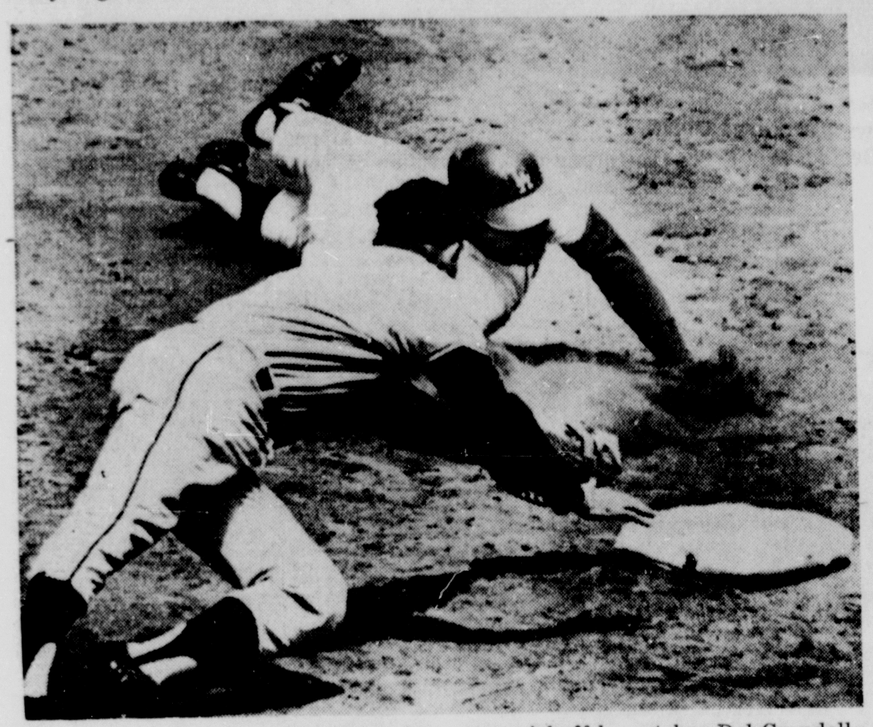

MARSHAL IN ACTION—Jay Alexander of Novato, familiar to television viewers as "Marshal J," rides as parade marshal to the delight of small fry among the watchers.

Giants Grab First-Place Tie As Marichal Hurls 4th Win

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The lull before the storm was in effect today as the San Francisco Giants and Los Angeles Dodgers paused in their fierce rivalry competition later in the week.

The first meeting of the old foes ended yesterday with the Giants taking two out of three games, climaxed by Juan Marichal's brilliant 6-3 pitching victory in the third encounter, his fourth straight win of the season. The victory moved the Giants into a first-place tie with Philadelphia.

With each game drawing more than 50,000 ardent fans to Dodger Stadium, the clubs put on their typical tense battles, punctuated by rhubarbs and unusual plays.

Yesterday's game had two high points. One came when Willie Davis rapped a two-run, inside-the-park homer in the first inning thanks to Willie McCovey in left field, who misjudged the ball and let it get by him as Davis and Maury Wills streaked around the bases.

The other came in the sixth inning when Jim Gilliam tried to steal home as Frank Howard was at the plate. Howard belatedly swung at the ball Marichal threw and the umpires ruled he grounded out. The Dodgers contended Marichal quick-pitched and the Giants maintained he was off the mound and was trying to pick off Gilliam when Howard interfered by hitting the ball.

The two unusual plays overshadowed the continued hitting streak of wonderful Willie Mays who belted out his ninth homer of the season to regain sole possession of first place in the home run parade. Mays got two hits in four times at bat to keep his average at .456 and run his hitting streak to 10 games.

The Giants won the game in a little more than one inning, getting to Dodger starter Nick Willhite for five runs, three in the first inning. The Giants converted the two singles Willhite gave up in the second into a pair of runs that was enough for their margin of victory. Mays' homer came in the eighth off Ron Perranoski

In the first inning, singles by Jesus Alou, Mays and Jim Hart sandwiched around a walk to Harvey Kuenn accounted for three runs with McCovey scoring Mays on a sacrifice fly for the third tally.

In the next frame, Jose Pagan and Del Crandall singled before Phil Ortega relieved Willhite. Marichal greeted Ortega with a bunt single to load the bases and a force out and Kuenn's sacrifice fly pushed over the pair of runs.

In addition to Willie Davis' fluke homer, the Dodgers added a run in the second on Ron Fairly's double and John Roseboro's single.

"I was delighted with Marichal's great performance," Manager Alvin Dark commented before leading his Giants home to meet Houston today. "We've got a long way to go; the season has just started. But Juan had good stuff."

Dark added that he felt the Dodgers hadn't improved much over last year but the question was whether they needed much improvement over their winning season.

Manager Walt Alston was philosophical about his situation in view of the many injuries his club has suffered.

"I'm not satisfied where we are in the standings, but considering all the injuries, we've done fairly well," he commented.

"One of the injured, Sandy Koufax, swings back into action tonight when the Dodgers meet the Chicago Cubs in a single game. A muscle injury has kept him out nearly two weeks. Opposing him tonight is Dick Ellsworth.

The Milwaukee Braves dropped the Philadelphia Phillies into a first place tie by beating them, 1-0, the Pittsburgh Pirates outslugged the St. Louis Cardinals, 12-8, the Houston Colts beat the Chicago Cubs, 5-3, and the Cincinnati Reds swept the New York Mets, 6-5 and 6-3, in other National League action.

In the American League, Washington defeated New York, 6-5, after a 4-0 defeat, Cleveland shut out Baltimore after losing to the Orioles, 5-2, Chicago beat Los Angeles, 3-2, and then lost, 6-2, Boston topped Detroit, 11-7, and Kansas City downed Minnesota twice, 7-4 and 8-7.

Hank Fischer pitched a two-hitter to best Art Mahaffey and score his third straight win for the Braves. The erstwhile relief pitcher also drove in the game's only run when he singled in the second inning after a double by Joe Torre and a walk to Dennis Menke. Tony Gonzalez and Johnny Herrnstein had the only Philadelphia hits as Fischer retired the last 16 batters in order.

Vallejo Race Yachts Log Speedy Times

By ALFRED MATSON

It was phenomenal with early morning starts, a strong ebb-tide and favoring wind, the entire fleet of yachts participating in the annual Vallejo Race were all across the finish line prior to 12 o'clock noon.

The fastest time, and an all time record, was that of Orient, Tim Moseley's big cutter, which was clocked in 2:06:45. Needless to say, Orient was the winner in cruising club "A."

A fast trip but one of the wettest, too. The strong ebb-tide coupled with winds of 25 knots strength and a miserably rough sea that developed, plus glowering skies, made it hardly a day for pleasant relaxation.

There were many scintillating victories by Marin sailors; in the hot IC class, Dam-Near, superbly sailed by owner Hal McCormick and Steve Maison, took top honors with a 1-2 record. And Hayes McGill turned in another brillant race in Shiranami of the Challenger class, also taking a first and second in the fleet of 14 boats.

Then there is Bob Potter's victory aboard Touche, in the Initial tough cruising club "B" rhubarb, in the K-40 Kay Too. All the foregoing winners fly the San Francisco Yacht Club burgee and there were many more.

Giants' Infield Hurting As Result Of Injury To Key Man Cepeda

CONNOLLY

If coming events cast their shadows, as they say in the classics, it might get worse for the S.F. Giants in the pennant race, before it gets better. You might even say things are quite unsettled with a hint, here and there of an impending panic.

The juggling that went on last week was magnificent. Manager Al Dark pulled every plug to throw his best lineup against the Dodgers and in doing so plainly mirrored the concern he feels about the team sprawling off form with neither pitchers nor hitters measuring up to their true standards. Some of the worry is due to rain and inactivity while a lot of it is due to just plain and fancy tapering off of the "spring daisy form" displayed against inferior American League competition.

IN THE ORDER of their importance I'd rate the principal worries of the Giants as follows:

(a) Injury to Orlando Cepeda makes the Giants hurt in the infield. He causes an unbalance that could unhinge the best pitchers as well as management.

(b) Willie McCovey, since he replaced Cepeda, now rates higher as an outfielder than ever before. He did make a whale of a play Saturday night but first base responsibilities, and the haunted memories of a few years back, make McCovey want to get out of the infield scramble altogether.

(c) THERE SEEMS to be a "story behind the story" of Jimmy Davenport being sidetracked for Chuck Hiller. Manager Dark must feel Davenport isn't hitting enough. With McCovey, Hiller and the inexperienced Hart at third base, the most biased Giant fan has to admit there is an inferiority complex in that group as compared to Cepeda, Davenport et al.

(b) Bob Shaw and Duke Snider were saviours for the club in the Dodger twilight Saturday night. If the Duke rounds into batting form, he'll be worth his weight in gold and twice as nasty.

(e) Pagan's lack of hitting worries Al Dark no end but he is stymied for the want of a competent extra glove man with a hefty bat.

ALL IN ALL though there is nothing basically unsound with the Giants as of now. Shifting infielders is hazardous to the steadying influence of a club supposed to be headed for a pennant.

Del Crandall, a slow starter with the bat, is living up to form but should get started shortly. The big lift to the S.F. club came yesterday when Juan Marichal pitched back to his very finest form. He was master of the job from start to finish and got a good game in which he could easily use as a springboard effort to greater things.

THE 1964 strategy of Manager Dark is much more cautious, yet not as "antsy" as it was in other seasons. I think that is one reason why he intends to use most of his so called regulars in platoon fashion, even if it subjects him to some criticism.

Don't make any smart cracks about the Giants having a couple of "breather series" this week. Sure, they meet the Houston Colts today and tomorrow night, and on Wednesday and Thursday, both day games, they play host to the Chicago Cubs.

BUT AS Al Smith used to say, let's look at the record. In 1963 against the 9th place Houston club the Giants were only able to win 10 out of 18, losing 5 in Houston and 3 in S.F.

Against the 7th place Clubs the Giants won only 8 out of 18, six out of nine defeats in Chicago and four defeats out of nine in S.F.

So those 18 games S.F. lost to the 7th and 9th place clubs in 1963 could represent the difference between a championship and a third place berth.

Nicklaus Wins Vegas Tourney Second Time

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Jack Nicklaus is a champion golfer because he comes through under pressure.

The big fellow needed only a routine par four on the final hole yesterday to win $12,000 and the Tournament of Champions title for the second straight year. So what did he do? He knocked in a 42-foot putt for a birdie three, won by two big shots and ruined the playoff hopes of Doug Sanders and Al Geiberger.

Going into the final two holes of play in the annual desert classic, golf's leading money winner looked like he might come unstuck and throw away the title.

On the 17th hole he had a pressure putt of four feet to maintain his one stroke lead. He knocked it right in the back of the cup.

And on 18, he boomed out one of his patented 250-yard plus drives, but left his approach barely on the front edge of the green. If he had taken three putts, he could have forced the tournament into a tie.

But he canned it for his birdie and thereby boosted his earnings for the year in official PGA money to $46,150. He laso broke a string of 19 tournaments in which different players have won PGA titles—and he became the first back-to-back Tournament of Champions titlist since Gene Littler won three straight in 1955-56-57.

Nicklaus had rounds of 68-73-65-73 for a total of 279, nine shots nder par on the long and windswept Desert Inn Country Club course.

In the space of a year, Nicklaus has won $38,000 in three tournaments at the desert gambling spa.

Two Tie With 64s In Trophy Day Golf

Mrs. William May and Mrs. Fred Greenland both posted handicapped 64s yesterday to share the prize at the Mill Valley Women's Golf Club Trophy Day.

Mrs. May shot a 75 to go with her 11 handicap, and Mrs. Greenland came in with an 89 in front of a 25-stroke handicap for her score.

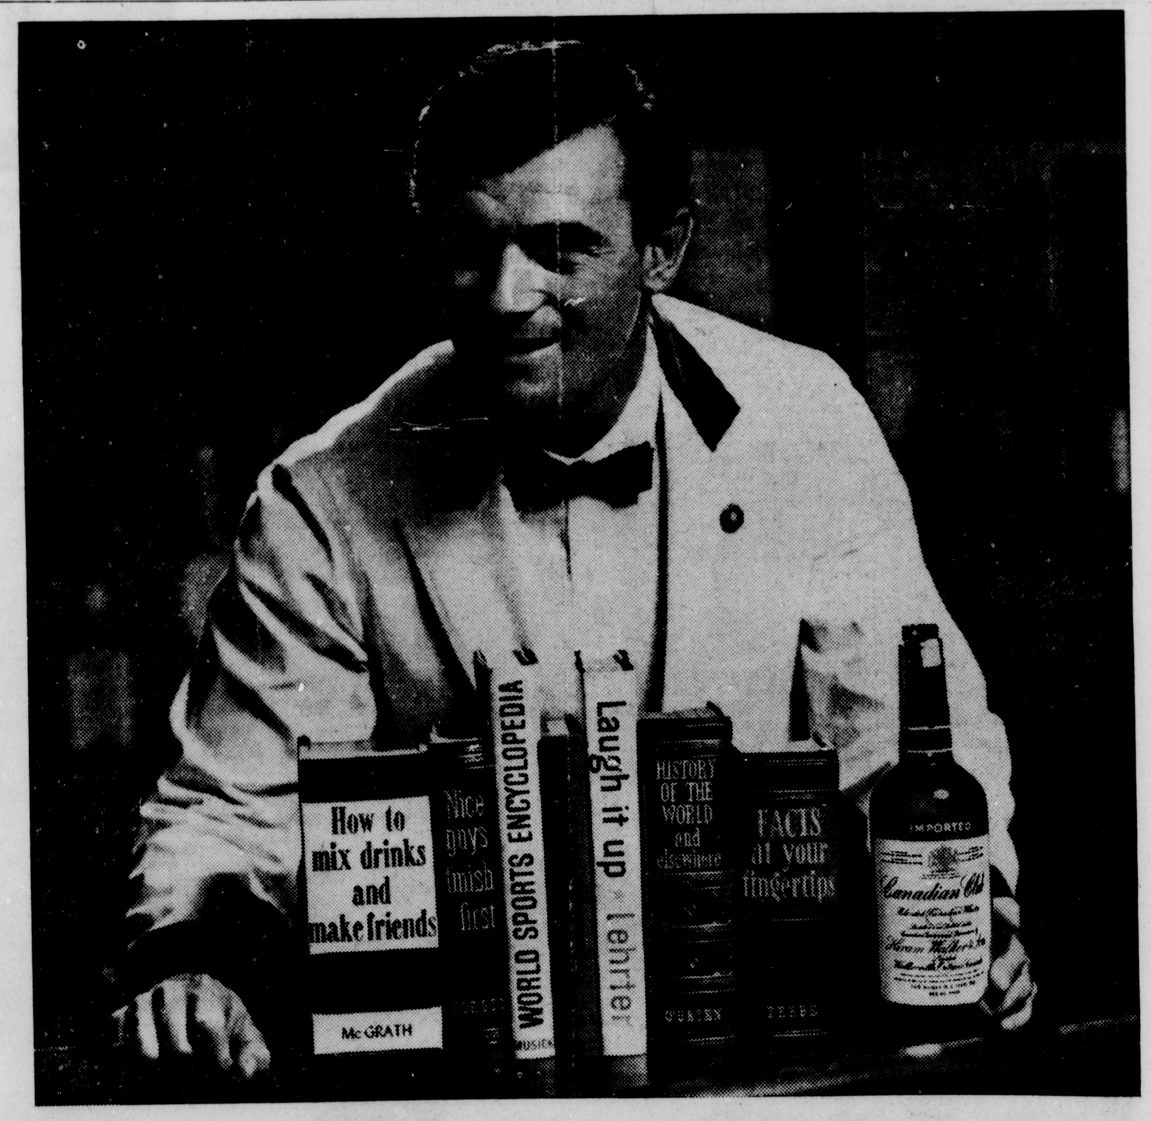

Results:

Class A—1. Tie between Mrs. William May, 75-11-64, and Mrs. Fred Greenland, 89-25-64. 3. Mrs. John Hurley, 88-22-66.

Class B—1. Mrs. V. Honey, 97-27-70. 2. Tie between Mrs. Eugene Halen, 96-25-71; and Mrs. Al Cale, 96-25-71.

HE KNOWS volumes.

There's no subject too deep for him to discuss. Philosophy. History. Love. Sound him out about any sport. Ask him about politics. Talk to him about local lore. You'll find he's a veritable library of information.

But his real strong point is human relations. Just watch the good-humored way he listens to the "latest story" again, lends an ear to troubles, or smooths out an argument. No wonder his tavern is such a cheerful place for companions to meet and enjoy a friendly drink.

Bulldog Swim Star Shatters MAL Records

Jim Allen of San Rafael High School set two Marin Athletic League records to lead his undefeated Bulldog teammates to a wind-whipped MAL swimming title Saturday at Tamalpais High.

The dual meet champion San Rafael varsity mermen smashed out six other first places in the 11 events for a total of 105 points to beat Redwood High, their nearest competitor, by 39 points. Redwood had 66, Tamalpais was third with 43, Drake had 36, and Terra Linda trailed with 12.

Allen, recent I-J prep-of-the-week, won the 200 free in a record 1:54.4 and then sped to a triumph in the 100 free with another record time of 51.6.

Another record - shattering performance for the Bulldogs was turned in by Tom Knopf, who cracked the MAL record in the 100 butterfly, winning that event in 57.8. Knopf also helped San Rafael to victory in the medley relay.

The only other varsity record was set in the 200 free relay, when the Redwood team of John Barrie, Hugh Downer, Don Kreuzberger and Lawrence Herst turned the course in 1:37.7, one-tenth of a second under the former MAL mark.

John Strider missed ownership of the league diving standard by just six-tenths of a point. The record is 248.85, and Strider notched 248.25 in his fine effort.

The San Rafael B team successfully defended its MAL crown by turning back a strong Terra Linda Bee challenge, 83-62. Tamalpais with 46, Redwood with 40, and Drake with 12 followed the class B powers at respectful distances.

Jim Strauss of San Rafael, who also won the 100 free, set the only Bee record with his win in the 50 free. Strauss went the 50 yards in 24.3 to crack the old mark by two-tenths of a second.

Jim Hall Wins Laguna Seca Racing Title

MONTEREY (UPI)—Jim Hall of Midland, Tex., won the Laguna Seca portion of the U.S. Road Racing Championship yesterday, after several top drivers had threatened to walk out on the race because of a dispute over pay.

Hall, driving a Chaparral-Chevrolet, edged out defending champion David McDonald of Los Angeles in his Cooper Buick. There were several spinouts but no serious accidents in the 82-lap, 150-mile event.

The dispute which had threatened the Laguna Seca, fourth in a series of 10 races to determine the drivers' championship, was settled Friday night when the drivers and the Sports Car Racing Assn. of the Monterey Peninsula agreed that the prize money at October's Pacific Grand Prix would be hiked from $20,000 to $30,000.

The drivers had balked when the association refused to pay appearance money at the October race, which previously had been agreed upon with the condition that the drivers appear in yesterday's race for free.

Third place in the race went to Roger Penske of Philadelphia, also driving a Chaparral-Chevrolet.

Cobra - Fords won the top three places in the grand touring race, also held yesterday on the 1.9-mile Laguna Seca course. Ed Leslie was first, followed by Ken Miles of Los Angeles and Bob Johnson of Columbus, Ohio.

It seems to me . . .

by Lou Concilio

Shoemaker, Stick to Thy Last

With almost no urging whatever, my good wife Myrl, will confirm I am a man easily given to irritations. Things and situations and thankfully few people bother me at times. And, when I am bothered, it is well to give me wide berth, for my arms do flail mightily. My righteous indignation is tied rather precariously to a hair trigger, and some idiot is always jiggling this delicate weapon.

I can recall with considerable distaste and much more abundant frustration an experience of some twenty-odd (numerically speaking, only, please!) years ago, when I confidently first-sergeanted a reluctant company of G. I.'s in a voluntary effort to fight a brush fire. This was somewhere in the wilds of Australia (as the censors carefully permitted us to identify our location in letters), a mile or two outside the city limits of Brisbane. We stamped and beat, first deliberately, and then rather desperately, putting out one fire here and there.

But, the efforts were pitifully fruitless, and it wasn't long before we retreated with scorched pants and tear-streaked faces, to watch the little patches of fire join up to engulf the whole area, complete with a couple of jeeps some nitwit had parked too close. Today, my disposition, if not my pants, is scorched with the fires of still new auto dealers spewing forth the same old garbage. I suspect most of this species could trace their ancestry on a true course to the ole medicine man and his wagon load of colored water.

Then, there's the new menace in our already invaded ranks of suede-shoe operators. This one is difficult to identify, because he wears the cutaway coat of respectability and goes by the title of banker. (Before you call in my loan, my genuine banker friends, leave me hasten to explain—please!) The guy I'm referring to here is the one who advertised ridiculously low rates for automobile financing and cautions the public to beware of automobile dealers. He conveniently neglects to explain this advertised rate is actually available only to those with enough cash on hand they don't really need the loan in the first place.

The vast majority of car buyers today, who experience a financial squeeze in counting out as little as $300.00 for the down payment on their dream chariots, will get the fish-eye instead of prime rate from this new breed of money changer. And, if they were ever three days late on a charge account, the poor wishful thinkers will get quick directions to the nearest exit.

This financial charlatan has a brother working another twist on the same waltz-the-poor car buyer around just once more. He sells insurance, you see. And, just coincidently, he knows just where he can get that car financed for you. Brother, meet Mr. Joe Public, here. He's just about confused enough by this time we both can make a tidy bundle. And, just for good measure, to make sure he won't believe the dealer from whom he bought his car, why not tell him he paid too much for it, and we could have saved him a lot if he had only checked with us first?

Doug Cowan and I are proud to be Ford dealers, in the business of selling cars and service—fairly and honestly—at Ames Ford. We provide financing, legitimately, through every local bank, for the convenience of our wonderful customers. And, we have an understanding with all our banking friends: We promise not to loan money if they will promise not to sell cars. Take heed, you brothers grim, of whom I write with justifiable vitriol. ——

TWO PREMIERS

Marin Music Lovers Get Pair Of Concert Treats

This weekend offered a veritable feast for Marin music lovers.

Though the San Francisco Symphony at Forest Meadows took the spotlight, concerts by two Marin groups were well worth hearing.

These were the Spring concert of the San Rafael Chamber Orchestra last night at San Rafael High School and the College of Marin chamber program at Olney Hall Saturday night.

San Rafael chamber orchestra program, directed by Hugo Rinaldi, featured violin artistry of Jacob Krachmalnick.

His performances of J. S. Bach's concerto for violin and Bach's Concerto for Violin and Orchestra in E Major and especially Chausson's "Poeme for Violin and Orchestra, Op. 25," and Sarasate's "Zigeunerweisen" were acclaimed as outstanding.

The 38-piece orchestra provided beautiful background for his solo work and also gave a pleasing performance of the symphony No. 4 in C Minor by Schubert.

Another notable work on the program was the West Coast premiere of "Transposed Light," a tone poem for precussion, orchestra and spoken voice by the young San Francisco composer Earl Zindars, with narration by his wife Anne. Its opening was spectacular with its plaintive flute melody, exciting percussion solo and abstract form in colored light thrown on the screen behind the orchestra.

The College of Marin program was marked by a wide variety of fare. Strictly traditional were the 16th century madrigals and group of liturgical motets sung by the madrigal group directed by Dr. S. Drummond Wolff and the two intradas by Melchoir Franck played by the brass ensemble directed by John H. Myers.

After these the premiere performbance of "Correlations," written especially for the chamber band by Marin composer Gerry C. Olds, had the shock effect of a plunge into cold water. Written in a pungent modern idiom with jazz elements, it had unusual uses of instruments and electrifying dynamics.

Singing unaccompanied, the madrigal group composed of five male and five female voices illustrated what remarkable results can be obtained through discipline and expert direction.

The seven-instrument brass ensemble played with true, clear tone for the most part. Myers conducted the "Corelations" with much verve. —M.B.

Drainage Pump Site On Agenda For San Rafael

The City of San Rafael will be asked by its public works director tonight to buy property at Jordan and Lindaro streets for location of a storm drainage pump.

The request was placed on the agenda for the city council meeting at 8 p.m. by Norris Rawles, public works director. He said the owner of property at Jordan and Lindaro which is designated for a pump in the Bret Harte drainage plan by engineer Daniel P. Coleman has applied for a building permit on the property. The city building department reported today no permit application has been received, however.

Bids were to be opened at 2 p.m. today for grading Victor Jones Park in Glenwood. Contract is to be awarded at the council meeting. The same applies to contract for rebuilding tennis courts at Boyd Park.

Award of a contract for the city's fourth fire station in East San Rafael, also is scheduled. This was held up at the last meeting to await recommendation by the fire commission.

Comedy On Suburbia Due In Ross

Ross Valley Players open "The Tunnel of Love," Peter DeVries' crisp comedy of life in suburbia, Thursday at 8:30 p.m. A three-weekend run at the Barn, in Ross, will launch the group's 35th continuous year.

Ted Schuster and Tykie Casey play the top roles as Augie and Isolde Poole, the childless couple who become entangled with an adoption agency investigator. Schuster is a well-known San Rafael dentist. Tykie is Mrs. Richard C. Casey, Ross mother of five.

The Pooles' neighbors are prolific Alice Pepper, played by Virginia R. O'Brien of Lucas Valley, and her roving husband, Dick. The latter role is in the professional hands of Joe Wadlington, Mill Valley resident and teacher of speech, drama and English a Redwood High School. After receiving a bachelor's degree from Chico State, Wadlington spent two years in professional theater before going back to school for a teaching credential.

Glory Stevens of San Rafael, television performer as well as a secretary, is the play's Miss Novick, svelte "man of science." Miss McCracken, the agency social worker who looks the part, is played by Dorothy Schuster, real-life wife of the leading man.

Tickets may be reserved at Orrick's Travel Bureau, San Anselmo; Murray Realty, Terra Linda, and Octagon House, Art and Garden Center.

FEATHERED SERPENTS, WATERMELON, AND CANVAS WORTH $100 PER INCH!

Mexicans have surrounded themselves with vital modern art. The works of the Mexican masters and the flourishing newer schools fill their galleries, decorate the walls of their fine buildings, and bring high prices in the world market.

Little wonder, for this art inherits the best of two traditions.

From Western Europe, out of the Renaissance by way of the Spain that gave us Velasquez and Goya, it has a great heritage . . . one that survives in its original form in Mexico's churches.

And from the ancient frescoes and sculpture of the Maya, Toltec and Aztec comes a massive simplicity, and traditional themes like the god-king Quetzelcoatl, the "feathered serpent."

Rufino Tamayo, for instance—one of the great Mexican moderns—has based paintings now in many of the world's great museums, on simple variations of the watermelon theme.

Knowledge of our modern neighbor is important today. Send for the free 16-page booklet, "Know Mexico," Box 1900, New York 19.

Committee Against Unification Formed

Formation of a 35-member committee opposing unification of all the school districts in Tamalpais High School District was announced today by John E. Cahill Jr., chairman.

"We are in favor of some type of unification but we are opposed to the present plan which will convert the Tamalpais School District area into a 'big city school system,' " Cahill said.

The committee is urging a "no" vote on the proposed unification into one district of the 38 elementary schools and three high schools in the Tamalpais District which will come before the voters June 2.

"There is no evidence that the total cost of operating the proposed district will be less than the cost of operating the present districts," Cahill said.

The committee also is concerned about loss of citizen control of education, he said.

He criticized the method of election, by which trustees would represent different geographical areas, but their election would be by voters of the entire unified district.

"This means that a board member could be elected even though a majority of the people in his own area voted against him," he pointed out.

Officers of the group include Mrs. John Rakow of Ross, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Walter Way of Ross, recording secretary; Daniel Romano of Kentfield, treasurer, and district chairmen Richard J. Cruikshank of Sausalito, Erwin Farley of Corte Madera, Mrs. James Eggers of Greenbrae, Milton Bromberg of Kentfield, Mrs. Henry B. Grandin and Frank Barsocchini of Ross, and Sebastian Jack Cimino of Fairfax.
